

NCAP

RCAHMS NATIONAL COLLECTION
OF AERIAL PHOTOGRAPHY

WWW.NCAP.ORG.UK

Key moments in world history, decades of change – one of the world's largest and most significant collections of historical aerial photography.

A SERVICE OF

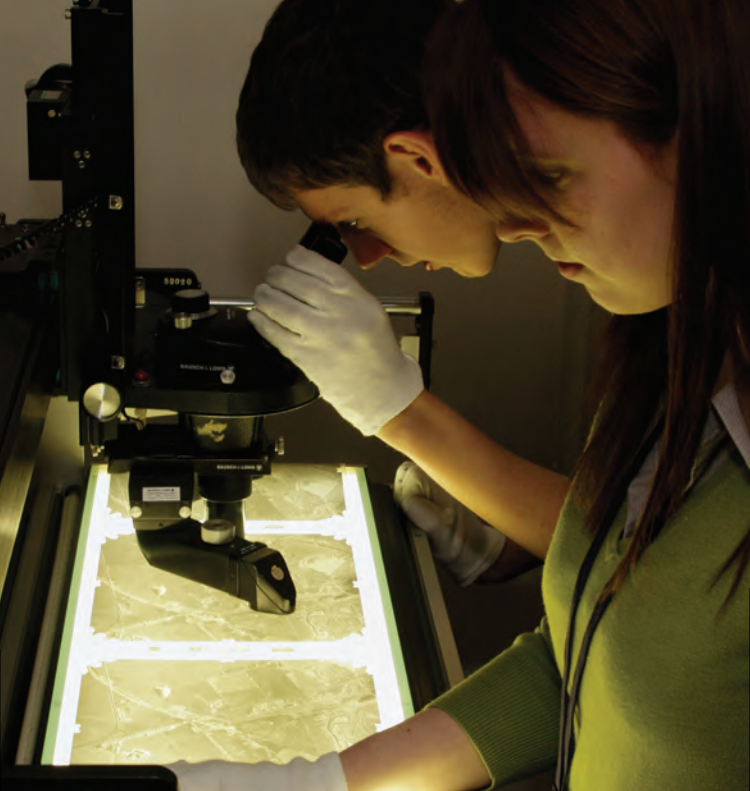

RCAHMS

Edinburgh, 1949

Features

- Over 20 million aerial photographs of places around the world
- Key moments of world history, in 3D, as they happened
- Declassified imagery from RAF and US Army Air Force
- Aerial survey photography from mapping agencies
- Bird's eye photography from sources including Aerofilms
- Area-wide chronological coverage available at high-resolution
- Photography from the 1920s to the present day

Services

- Free access to an ever-growing online resource of aerial photography
- Zoom-and-pan high-quality images
- Access flight maps online and identify millions of undigitised photographs
- Order and download digital images at research-quality or high-resolution
- Commission our specialists to undertake a search
- Visit NCAP by appointment

ncap.org.uk

Auschwitz, Poland, 1944

Applications

- Explore key moments of military history in 3D
- Research local history
- Investigate places over time
- Analyse land use change
- Identify unexploded ordnance
- Provide chronological evidence of development, ownership and access
- Factual and unbiased evidence in legal disputes
- Bring authenticity to media productions

Berck-sur-Mer, France, 1941

“Long before the days of Google Earth, highly skilled airmen flew alone, by day and night, in unarmed Spitfires relying on their wits as they risked their lives to capture images on plane-mounted cameras.”

The Daily Mail

Den Brielle, The Netherlands, 1944

“Thank you very much for the fast response and great service.”

NCAP customer, The Netherlands

RCAHMS

NCAP

RCAHMS NATIONAL COLLECTION
OF AERIAL PHOTOGRAPHY

RCAHMS
John Sinclair House
16 Bernard Terrace
Edinburgh
EH8 9NX
United Kingdom

Phone: +44 (0)131 651 6821

Web: ncap.org.uk

© Crown Copyright RCAHMS 2013. Charity SC026749